

Audition Script:

Enactus (pronounced EN-ACT-US) is an international non-profit organization that brings together student, academic, and business leaders from different colleges and universities. Through the power of entrepreneurial action we help to improve the quality of life and standard of living for people in need in our local and global communities in order to shape a better and more sustainable world.