

We are hiring... Research & Development Team, Enactus Sheridan

About Enactus Canada

Enactus Canada is the governing body for all Canadian teams and reports directly to Enactus World. Enactus is an international non-profit organization that works with leaders in business and higher education to mobilize university and college students to make a difference in their communities.

Who is Enactus Sheridan?

Founded in 2012, Enactus Sheridan attracts students of an entrepreneurial mindset who wish to initiate change and create an impact on a local or international scale. Our team includes an array of student, academic and business leaders committed to using the power of entrepreneurial action to transform lives and shape a better, more sustainable world. Enactus Sheridan is like a family and as such we welcome all students from any academic background and campus at Sheridan College. We celebrate our members' successes and inspire them when they experience failures. We offer a team atmosphere that goes beyond these projects, many of our members make life-long friendships while on our team. We are proud of that!

Overview of the Position

The R&D Team Member will work with their team to uncover possible project ideas to roll out in the coming year. Members will use resources such as YouTube, U.N., etc. along with researching major needs that the organization can tackle. From there, the team will flesh out an idea and develop the basic framework for a project for a project team to adopt. An R&D Team Member should contribute thoughtful ideas and help create a new project with the triple bottom line in mind. As this position is volunteer, we are very flexible around every member's school schedule while also ensuring that our members receive professional development through training, workshops and getting involved in the community. We want to help you get prepared for the workplace!

Qualifications

- Current part-time or full-time Sheridan College student and willingness to be trained
- Entrepreneurial spirit, takes initiative and passionate about helping others
- Enjoys a tight-knit atmosphere and prefers to work in teams
- Preference will be given to communications students but all students are welcome to apply

Responsibilities

- Conducting preliminary research on local and international needs that the organization can successfully implement
- Working with faculty advisors, the president and vice-president to receive coaching and discuss targets and timelines
- Fleshing out project ideas into a basic framework for a potential project; implementing the triple bottom line for each potential project idea

If this sounds like you, please apply for this position by sending in your resume and cover letter to karlyannaobrien@gmail.com. Please CC tjrb34@gmail.com. In your cover letter, please answer the three questions below.

If you were hired in this role

- What criteria would you consider before launching a new project for Enactus Sheridan?
- Why would you be an asset to an organization like Enactus Sheridan?
- What is one initiative or project that you would like to see incorporated into next year's Enactus Sheridan projects?

enactus™